GRANT GUIDELINES

The Craig and Susan Thomas Foundation awards a number of grants per year, averaging $2,000. Grants are determined based on your program, your needs, and how well your mission fits our goals.

Before you apply, be sure that your group is eligible.

- Is your organization based in Wyoming?
- Does your organization focus on learners who are at-risk?
- Is your organization oriented toward helping students acquire post-secondary education?
- Is your organization charitable or education based?

Once you've determined your group is eligible, completely fill out the Grant Application, sign and date. Include a cover letter with your application that introduces your organization and proposal and describe how your mission fits that of the Craig and Susan Thomas Foundation.

Grant applications are accepted throughout the year. Applications are considered on a quarterly basis and you can expect a response to your application by the 15th of the month following the quarter in which it was received. For instance if we received your application on February 10th, you can expect a response by April 15. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to email us at Info@Thomas-Foundation.com or call (307) 634-8195.

If you would like an e-mail confirming that we received your grant request, be sure to include your email address on the application!
